

WEC Summer Horse Camp Enrollment Form

Horse camp is for anyone ages 8 and older (adults included!), who is interested in learning more about working with horses. This 2.5-hour camp includes one of hour of horsemanship and one hour of riding and a 30-minute lunch break. In the horsemanship portion, participants will learn how to groom, tack, and care for horses. For the riding portion, students will either work to improve their riding skills, or, if they have never ridden before, will learn the basics of how to steer and control a horse. Each day promises something new. Camp will be limited to 12 participants split in to 2 groups to keep in compliance with all COVID guidelines.
